BEFORE the winter season is over the Durland Riding

Academy expects to have offered indoors every novelty feature of outdoor riding, according to announcement yesterday. Charles Krause, the master of ceremonies, adds that this week's bill on Wednesday night will be equally as novel as any offered in the past. Special attention will centre around the Polo Bending Class, This consists of riding a pony two times the length of the ring through ten sticks placed eight feet apart and then racing twice the length of the ring. This race always is run in pairs, which makes it more difficult. Each stick that is touched or knocked down counts against the pony and the prizes are awarded to the riders accordingly.

The comedy event, the Pig Pen

Way to Eddie Renz in Record Time.

Jump, will be repeated.
